

Overview	The core of computing is computer science, in which pupils are taught the principles of information and computation, how digital systems work and how to put this knowledge to use through programming. The study of how computers work, how they communicate globally, and why Computational Thinking helps us solve problems. In Computer Science we create algorithms and code programs to achieve remarkable goals. It's the choice of the logically minded, the creative problem-solver, the analytical thinker. Computer Scientists enjoy Maths, languages and puzzles and solve the world's problems with technology. As the fourth Science and a prestigious E-Bacc subject, Computer Science opens doors to the most exciting careers and further studies such as Cybersecurity, Bioinformatics, Natural Language Processing, Artificial Intelligence and Robotics.
